

GWTA Nishna Valley Wings

July 23, 2017

Meeting called to order by Lowell at 0900. 13 members and 5 guests present. Our guests included Ed and Barb Mills and Krueger's 3 granddaughters.

Announcements: passing of Everett McGrew, longtime Indian Creek Museum leader and personal friend of members. September 20-23 is Blues, Bikes and Barbeque in Fayetteville, Arkansas. Ruth shared their past adventures of rides and the generosity of their son who lives there. Contact them for more details if you are heading down.

Barb Mills shared upcoming Nebraska Friendship campout, August 25-27 and Fall Follies at Gretna on October 28th - more information coming.

Hot News!!

Bryan and Yvonna were selected as National Family of the Year for GWTA.

Photos of presentation and plaque presented to Bryan and Yvonna.

Yes, it took a few attempts to get everyone smiling!

Jo shared their story of their road to nomination and final selection.

Congratulations!

Renewals: if you have renewed and have not received any updates, please contact Pam Beveridge. She has mailed each member a letter requesting verification of current membership and also confirmation if you wish to continue your membership. Pam is working very hard to update the list while National is changing over their software program for memberships. Her address is: 3312 E Shawnee Avenue, Des Moines, Iowa 50317. Email: bevpx002@gmail.com. Please send her your response.

New Business: Motion made to give memorial to the family of Everett McGrew by Mike. Seconded by Kenny. Motion carried. Memorial and sympathy card signed by members provided to Bambi to present to family.

Old business: Ride to Bedford for the famous strawberry shortcake at Junction Café was set for 10AM today. The 25 cent raffle to guess the amount of money in our Pig fund was won by Jack Chaney.

No further business, the meeting was adjourned at 0945.
